News Summary

Sloga representatives meet with Petritsch

Sloga representatives met with High Representative Wolfgang Petritsch in Banja Luka to discuss the current situation in the RS, refugee return and work of joint BiH institutions. BiH Presidency Co-chairman Zivko Radisic stated that they agreed on key strategic issues and that the basic message is that consistent implementation of the Dayton Agreement is their common, and only, option. Radisic added that further affirmation of all institutions, including joint BiH institutions, are in the interest and responsibility of all, adding that social and economic recovery and development is a special priority. Petritsch said that economic issues would be the focus for next year. Petritsch also visited the RS Ministry Department for Refugees and DPs where he talked about the agreement with RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik on advancing this of office's work in order to provide better conditions for the return of refugees.

Radisic, Djokic and Dodik meet with Barry

BiH Presidency Co-chairman Zivko Radisic and OSCE Head of Mission Robert Barry discussed preparations for the local elections in BiH and new Election Law. Barry pointed to the open list system of voting, where candidates' names would appear on the ballots. He added that the success of political parties would depend on their candidates. Barry believes that the new Election Law provides a balanced political system in BiH and fully adheres to the Dayton Agreement, which is something that gives a great deal of authority to the entities themselves. Radisic said that the RS is going to do everything it can to ensure organized and successful elections. Barry also met with RS National Assembly Speaker Petar Djokic. Djokic pointed to the functioning of the RS constitutional and legal system. He also emphasized the stable functioning of the entity and joint BiH institutions, which is a prerequisite for BiH to join European integration. Barry also met with RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik, but gave no statements.
