

OHR RTRS News Summary, 17 Septemb 2000

News Headlines:

- Italian Trento delegation visits Prijedor to discuss refugee issues with local authorities
- Sarajevo Housing Commission starts procedure to suspend housing rights of 17 illegal occupants
- RS Army Second Krajina Brigade celebrates 9th anniversary
- RS Army Sixth Sana Infantry Brigade celebrates 9th anniversary
- Ivanov and Papandreou support pursuit of political solutions to problems in Balkans – Russian and Greek media
- EU to consider its policy on post-election Yugoslavia at meeting scheduled for 18 September
- Report on elections in Montenegro
- Almost 300 polling stations to open in Kosovo
- Candidacies of SPS-JUL Coalition candidates Dusan Cukic, Vecernje Novosti Director, and Ivan Markovic, Radio Yugoslavia Director, violate election rules specifying that public information service officials cannot run for office – DOS
- Elections are beginning of new life – Kostunica
- Vojislav Mihailovic campaign successful so far – SPO Election Headquarters
- Milosevic may visit Berane, Montenegro, on 20 September – Yugoslav Prime Minister Momir Bulatovic
- Army should protect election winner – G17-PLUS Co-ordinator Mladjan Dinkic
- Three OTPOR activists arrested in Rakovica, Belgrade, on 15 September; OTPOR says repression in Serbia on the rise

- It should be explained to general public there was no civil war in Croatia – Mesic advisor General Imre Agotic
- World news
- Report on food production in RS
- Drought causes great damage to fruit in RS
- Autumn harvest in Semberija
- Belgrade film director Petar Zec presented with “Kocicevo pero” Award
- Sports
- Weather