News Summary

Petritsch and Barry request Bicakcic to revoke law on defamation

High Representative Wolfgang Petritsch and Head of the OSCE Mission to BiH Robert Barry requested BiH Federation Prime Minister Edhem Bicakcic to revoke the draft law on defamation.

The draft law has already been sent into the parliamentary procedure. According to OSCE Banja Luka spokesman Piers McCorley, disputed were provisions that define the existence of categories of defamation, larger fines for journalists charged with abuse, and the right of elected officials to raise charges against journalists that have insulted them.

International organizations hold press conference

IC representatives held a press conference on Tuesday in Sarajevo. OHR spokesperson James Ferguson spoke of the compatibility of the BiH Constitution and the Law on the BiH Border Service. Ferguson stated that Serb representatives in the BiH Parliament House of Peoples rejected the law because they were not ready to take action against smuggling, crime and illegal immigration. They instead wanted to protect their own personal interests. Ferguson added that High Representative Wolfgang Petritsch has called for the establishment of a higher education council. The aims of that Council would be advising and monitoring academic standards and the promotion of strategic thought as well as leadership in higher education. Commenting on certain statements of RS Government representatives and RS Information Minister Rajko Vasic on the IMC, Ferguson said that these statements were unacceptable. The IMC has been working in the accordance to Annex 10 of the Dayton Peace Agreement. National staff members should take over the IMC operation by July 2000. In the meantime, OSCE spokesperson Tanya Domi stated that the OSCE has been "supporting the IMC and its role in granting frequencies." She added that the deadline for lodging complaints to the Provisional Election Commission was 17 January.

Jelavic on newly-elected Croatian leadership

Member of the BiH Presidency and HDZ President Ante Jelavic

considers that the newly elected Croatian leadership will complicate or deteriorate the position of Croats in BiH. Jelavic hopes that the base for cooperation between BiH Croats and the new Croatian leadership will be one of partnership.
