

OHR RTRS News Summary, 19 December 1999

News Headlines

- Storm hits Venezuela
- Electricity supply in RS stabilized and situation on roads improving
- Hydroelectric plant Trebisnjica has problems with heavy snowfall
- Report on RS power network and problems with payment of electric energy
- RS Government discusses financial aid and social programs for disabled RS veterans
- Parliamentary elections in Russia
- World news
- Envoy of Serb minority in Hungary Lastic comments on position of Serb minority in Hungary
- Montenegrin Government sends request to Yugoslav Communication Ministry for construction of hangar in Podgorica airport – Yugoslav Prime Minister Bulatovic
- Alliance for Changes ends protest rally in Belgrade
- Serbs of northern Kosovo condemn KFOR for not protecting them
- Relatively calm situation in Kosovo – KFOR spokesperson
- Croatia will turn to Europe after Tudjman's death – Klein interview for Sarajevo magazine Dani
- Croatian Intelligence Service (HIS) rejects SFOR allegations of its involvement in BiH
- BiH HDZ Presidency supports all laws and decisions by High Representative Petritsch that are in accordance to BiH Constitution
- 2,000 Serb and Bosniak workers must return to jobs in Mostar Aluminij and Soko companies – International Labor Organization (ILO) in Geneva

- 3,113 houses in reconstruction phase in Bugojno Municipality – ONASA
- 276 claims for property return in Livno Canton
- Serb Patriarch Pavle officiates mass in Belgrade
- Celebration of St. Nicholas Day
- Banja Luka-Belgrade air route restarts
- Sports and weather
- 120,000 houses damaged during Kosovo conflict, IC organizations have only rebuilt 60,000 to-date – UNHCR