

OHR RTRS News Summary, 2 January 2000

News Headlines

- Patriarch Pavle to visit Bethlehem
- Pope serves mass in Vatican
- Gypsy house burned in Pec – KFOR
- Four Serb houses burned in Prizren – KFOR
- KFOR arrests six in Prizren and Orahovac – KFOR
- KLA soldiers attack one Goran civilian – Goran Minority National Community Office
- Kouchner tells Reuters TV that he postponed election preparations in Kosovo because of lack of funds
- French Defense Minister visits French KFOR soldiers in Kosovo and meets with Kouchner and Reinhardt
- European Council delegation gives support to elections in Croatia
- Croat living in 47 countries vote for Croatian parliamentary elections
- Croatian parliamentary elections in Croatia to start on Monday
- 15 polling station open in BiH for Croatian parliamentary elections
- World news
- Y2K (millennium bug) did not create big problems in world
- January is holiday month in RS
- Banja Luka after New Year's celebration
- Trebinje after New Year's celebration
- Traffic in RS
- RS agriculture news
- Weather
- OSCE supervises voting for Croatian parliamentary elections in BiH – OSCE Mostar