

OHR RTRS News Summary, 20 August 2000

News Headlines:

- Following return from US, Dodik believes Dayton Agreement will not be revised
- Returnee tent settlements cannot be erected in Banja Luka, but only in camping grounds – Dodik
- Dodik denies allegations of Croat politicians that return of Croats to RS is insignificant
- Radio Yugoslavia short-wave transmitter near Bijeljina turned off after IMC requested explanation of its status – IMC spokesperson
- BiH Constitutional Court decides that three RS Constitution and one BiH Federation Constitution provisions are not in accordance with BiH Constitution
- Srbinje fire brigade localizes fire in Sutjeska National Park
- Three fires burning in Srebrenica region
- Uncertain whether Kursk submarine crew is still alive
- 6,000 Bosniaks and Croats returned to Prijedor, and 1,050 Serbs to Sanski Most, expectations of two-way return agreement not met
- Livno Serbs in great woe, many problems no one want to help them with, but they still want to remain in their homes
- British and New Zealand soldiers take part in exchange of fire in Vitez, New Zealander wounded and hospitalized – SFOR
- Montenegrin plans to establish customs checkpoints on border with Serbia to control flow of goods – SRNA
- Montenegro not intending to collect insurance fee for vehicles coming from RS – Montenegrin Customs Authority
- Belgrade citizens support Kostunica

- Democratic Opposition of Serbia (DOS) requests Yugoslav Election Commission to order local election commissions to make voter registers available
- Serb-owned house torched in Mogila near Gnjilane, in Kosovo – radio ham operators
- Explosion registered near premises of Democratic League of Kosovo (Rugova's party) in Malisevo on 18 August – KFOR
- Banja Luka Summer Drama Festival 'Ljetne Igre' ended on 19 August
- Sports
- Weather – 41 degrees Celsius recorded in Banja Luka on this day