

OHR RTRS News Summary, 22 January 2000

News Headlines

- Cardinal Puljic officiates at mass in Sarajevo Cathedral calling for unity of Christians
- SNSD holds session to discuss democratic processes in RS and two-year work of RS Government
- RS Association of War Invalids holds session in Ugljevik
- Banja Luka Police Academy cadets complete theoretical part of training
- RS and BiH Federation Refugee and DP ministers, Dragicevic and Garib, and Gorazde authorities reach agreement on return of refugees now living in Kopaci
- US Embassy invites BiH authorities to accelerate return of minorities
- Sarajevo-based Serb Civic Council (SGV) warns that Sarajevo Canton data on minority return untrue
- OHR Anti-Fraud Unit to follow fight against corruption very closely – OHR
- International officials visit Orahovac and Velike Hoca
- Serbian National Council member Rada Trajkovic accuses Milosevic of betraying Kosovo
- Serbian Helsinki Board for Human Rights demands that Justice Ministry release all untried Kosovo Albanians
- Final solution for Kosovo would probably be similar to status of RS in BiH – President of Pristina Center for Humanist Studies Malici
- Belgrade police name Arkan's murderers
- DAN Coalition holds constitutive session in Belgrade
- Croatian presidential candidates hold final rallies
- Seven prime ministers of countries neighboring Yugoslavia and EU and NATO delegations meet in Bulgaria to discuss sanctions against Yugoslavia

- World News
- RS fuel imports
- RS Customs Authority confiscates 100 cartons of cigarettes in Prijedor
- Sports
- Weather
- Radisic says BiH on road to understanding and prosperity
- Dobrosav Garicic, suspect in Arkan murder, no longer in Zvornik hospital – hospital officials
- Reactions of Serbian politicians to police actions in Arkan case

News Summary

Croatian presidential candidates hold final rallies

Croatian presidential candidates held final pre-election rallies throughout Croatia. The pre-election period of silence begins at midnight and will last until the polling stations close on Monday, January 24 at 20:00 hours. According to an IMC decision, BiH electronic media will also have to respect the election silence period.

00:23