News Summary

Ivanic definitely refuses Radisic's nomination

PDP President Mladen Ivanic stated that he has definitely refused being nominated by Zivko Radisic for the position of Council of Ministers Chairman. "I think that there should be no party influence during the appointment of those who are to leave for Sarajevo" Ivanic stated. "It seems to me that, regarding this issue, too many party ambitions exist and there is a desire to represent the Council of Ministers as a place where certain parties could show their strength. By that, I especially mean the SDS and SPRS."
