OHR RTRS News Summary, 26 November 2000

RT RS News Headlines:

- SDS delegation returns from four-day visit to Russia; Sarovic says their prediction of SDS election victory came true; Cavic says future authorities in RS will fight crime and corruption; Kalinic expresses satisfaction with visit to Russia's Duma, Patriarch Alexei II and Russian Foreign Ministry
- Final, certified election results to be announced on 27 November
- All RS parliamentary parties say they are ready for talks with other parties on formation of post-election coalitions
- RTRS commentary by Nenad Kecmanovic on establishment of democracy in our country [referring to RS]
- Talks on succession of former Yugoslavia property to be held in Brussels this December; BiH Treasury Minister Tusevljak believes succession talks on former Yugoslav assets and property will be correct if all sides leave talks as satisfied as they are dissatisfied
- Judicial and medical processing of 42 bodies of Serbs exhumed this autumn in Lav cemetery in Sarajevo completed in Serb Sarajevo
- Croat component of BiH Federation Commission for Missing Persons starts exhumations in Ravno Rostovo village in search of 11 Croats gone missing during BiH war
- Milosevic re-elected SPS president at party convention in Belgrade on Saturday; SPS Main Board selected but no former top officials re-elected to party's main board
- Criminal charges should be raised against Milosevic – Yugoslav Interior Minister Zoran Zivkovic
- Profiteers remain in top posts of Milosevic's SPS-party

– former SPS and current Serbian SDP President Zoran Lilic

- Milosevic's speech and threats at SPS election convention on Saturday were funny – DOS leader Dragoljub Micunovic
- Milosevic will experience even greater defeat at early Serbian parliamentary elections – Mladjan Dinkic, head of G17PLUS and DOS official
- Simply unbelievable that Milosevic is still in politics – ICTY spokesperson Florence Hartman
- Europe will not condition assistance to Yugoslavia on extradition of Slobodan Milosevic to ICTY – EC Chairman Romano Prodi
- US condemns re-election of Milosevic as SPS president – SRNA
- Milosevic held defiant speech at party's election convention on Saturday that has no connection with reality – London's Sunday Telegraph
- No clashes in Southern Serbia reported; however, tensions heightened due to Serbian Government deadline giving 'Albanian terrorists' by 19:00 on 27 November to withdraw from demilitarised zone on border
- Over 1,000 Albanians leave south-eastern Serbia and go to Kosovo – UNHCR
- Yugoslav police, army and President Kostunica in permanent contact regarding Kosovo situation – Yugoslav Interior Minister Zoran Zivkovic
- World news
- Mufti of Banja Luka haj effendi Camdzic congratulates Islamic faithful on start of holy holiday month of Mubarek Ramadan
- RS healthcare workers to return to their general strike on 27 November – RS Healthcare Syndicate President Milenko Granulic
- Belgrade media report on kidnapping of son of folk singer Lepa Brena and Slobodan Zivojinovic; no sources cited

- Sports
- Weather