Djokic on RS National Assembly and RS Government efforts

At the end of the last session of the RS National Assembly in 1999, Assembly Speaker Petar Djokic thanked all those who contributed to the stabilization of the RS political situation. "The sessions of the RS National Assembly have contributed to the affirmation of the RS" he said. "The Assembly was one of the factors that directly contributed to peace stabilization." According to Djokic, the Assembly made a colossal contribution to implementation of the Dayton Agreement. "The RS Government had a direct role in all of these processes" Djokic said.

RS on road to full affirmation – Dodik

In a greeting to the RS citizens for the upcoming New Year and Christmas holidays, RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik said that the RS is on the road to full affirmation. Dodik said that the "basis for progress is in us." Dodik pointed out that the RS should continue the process of integration with international processes, especially in the economic and trade sectors. "Our common mission is to go forward in leaps and bounds. There is no divide between the RS Government and the RS people" said Dodik.

International organizations hold press conference

International organizations held a press conference in Sarajevo on Tuesday. OSCE spokesperson Sanela Tunovic-Becirovic said that the Sarajevo staff of the Department for Out of Country Voting uncovered many fraudulent registration application forms of voters now living in the US. Tunovic-Becirovic added that the EASC uncovered that the SDA, through manipulation, had realized its interest in the registration of out-of-country voters. The spokesperson added that the EASC decided to strike a maximum of 15 candidates from the SDA candidate list. "The EASC would determine the exact number of candidates that would be stricken from the list” she added. Information concerning fraudulent voter registration applications came from the BiH Consulate in New York. In the meantime, an SFOR official analyzed implementation of the military aspects of the Dayton Agreement. The official pointed out the importance of reducing military potentials in BiH, cooperation between the entity armies and the arrest of six persons indicted for war crimes.
