OHR RTRS News Summary, 28 May 2000

News Headlines

- Continuation of 10th session of RS National Assembly to be held on Monday, 11th session immediately afterwards
- Dodik to visit ICTY on Monday
- Monument to eight fallen RS Army soldiers in village of Koprivna, Serb Sanski Most Municipality
- New orthodox church in village Kremna, Mt. Vucjak
- Barry holds press conference in Neum to discuss new election rules
- Silajdzic warns OSCE Head Waldner that, after general elections, only 6% of RS authorities will be Bosniak
- Situation with electric power and water supply in Banja Luka
- 1,300 cars cross over bridge at border with Croatia in Gradiska
- Construction of customs terminal near Gradiska bridge
- Montenegrin and Democratic Party of Socialist President Djukanovic accuses Socialist Peoples Party Vice-president Predrag Bulatovic of meeting with Milosevic and agreeing to destroy Montenegro
- Milosevic agrees to visit Montenegro – Bulatovic
- Serbian opposition leaders and Studio B Director Kojadinovic visit Moscow to meet with Ivanov
- Three Kosovo Serb houses burned in Obilic and Pristina
- Serb Community in Istra requests Croatian Assembly afford them same rights as Italian Community in Istra, Croatian President Mesic does not support request
- Russian and EU summit to be held in Moscow on Monday
- World news
- Sports and weather
- Dog show in Banja Luka