

OHR RTRS News Summary, 31 May 2000

News Headlines

- Several thousand Banja Luka soldiers demand suspension of evictions until provided appropriate accommodation
- RS workers will go on general strike on 29 June if RS Government does not bring decision on surplus of workers – RS Syndicate Union
- PEC adopts several amendments to draft of election law – OSCE
- 10 July deadline for general election voter registration – OSCE
- BiH Constitutional Court organizes public debate on accordance of RS and BiH Federation Constitutions with BiH Constitution on 29 June
- Jelavic and Miller discuss implementation of property laws
- 250 houses of returnees to RS to be reconstructed with IC funds – UNHCR
- RS Union of Refugees and DPs demand realization of Annex 7
- RS Commission for Searching for Missing Persons to start exhumations in Kazani, near Sarajevo
- 10 Turks arrested while trying to illegally cross BiH-Yugoslav border near Trebinje
- Four Iranian citizens drown in Sava River on night of 24/25 May – UN spokesperson Alun Roberts
- Prlic departs on official visit to Slovakia
- At least 81 children killed during NATO aggression – book “Children Accused” presented in Belgrade
- 55 Serbs banished from Urosevac and Istok come to Kosovska Mitrovica to see if they can return – BETA
- Kosovo Protection Corp member and two Albanians injured

during conflict with Albanians near Pristina – KFOR

- UN resolution to Kosovo not completely realized and UN supports its full implementation – Robertson
- All my bodyguards arrested upon my arrival at Belgrade airport from Moscow – Draskovic
- Belgrade transport workers on strike
- 200 Belgrade philosophy students condemn policy on higher education
- EU and US leaders support full implementation of UN resolution on Kosovo
- World news
- BiH Central Bank and British Logic enterprise sign contract on equality in BiH finances
- RS Rails becomes member of International Committee of Rails in Bern
- Novi Grad Sana San workers on strike, demanding resignation of factory leadership
- Health and pensioners' fees of 865,447 KM not paid to Bratunac Technical Maintenance Factory
- Banja Luka University plans to enroll 2,485 students next year
- Deputy High Representative Hoffman supports BiH Federation agreement on education signed on 10 May
- PDP welcomes Peace Implementation Council declaration adopted in Brussels
- DSP President Nebojsa Radmanovic denies claims that Sloga collected signatures for Djokic dismissal on 30 May
- Sports
- Weather