News Summary

Radic comments on election results in Croatia

President of the Democratic Patriotic Party Predrag Radic stated that he expects the new authorities in Croatia will do everything to end the agony of Serb refugees from Croatia and Croat refugees from the RS and to resolve these issues in accordance with the Dayton Agreement.

Cavic comments on election results in Croatia

SDS Vice-president Dragan Cavic stated that he does not expect dramatic changes in the policy of the new ruling coalition in Croatia regarding Serb refugees. He explained this view with the fact that the winning parties did not condemn discriminative measures against Serbs in the registration process for the Croatian elections. Cavic believes that Croats in BiH must be worried by the election results, because they lost their strongest ally.

Luzanski comments election results in Croatia

BiH Federation Vice-president Ivo Andric-Luzanski congratulated the former Croatian opposition on their victory and stated that the HDZ fulfilled its historical duty by creating a sovereign and independent state. Luzanski believes that the removal of current authorities in Croatia will not change relations with Croats in BiH, because aid to Croats in BiH is a constitutional obligation of the Republic of Croatia, not individual political parties.
