News Summary

Israeli media focuses on Dodik

The Israeli media placed much attention on RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik. In an exclusive interview for the most influential radio station, The Voice of Israel, Dodik talked about the current situation in the RS, economic reforms, BiH institutions, indictments and the ICTY. Israeli officials believe that Dodik is the main instigator of democratic changes, peace and cooperation with neighbors. They also believe Dodik to be the most important representative of the Serb nation, because he seeks broad changes.
