OHR RTRS News Summary, 9 February 2000

News Headlines

- RS National Assembly adopts draft property return law
- RS Government withdraws draft law on property return due to large number of amendments – RS Deputy Premier Kremenovic
- OHR and OSCE welcome RS National Assembly decision on establishment of Ombudsmen office in RS
- Presidential crisis in RS should be resolved with election – Radisic
- BiH Presidency reaches agreement on structure of BiH Council of Ministers
- Radisic and Klein discuss implementation of BiH Border Service project
- No official information on assassination of Yugoslav Defense Minister Bulatovic
- Kosovo Protection Corps denies former KLA involvement in Bulatovic murder
- Bulatovic assassination part of organized terrorism being orchestrated from outside the country – Yugoslav Information Minister Matic
- Bulatovic assassination treacherous deed – former Yugoslav Army Chief of Staff Perisic
- Milosevic eliminating wartime comrades – Mesic reaction to Bulatovic assassination
- Bulatovic murder means that future of Yugoslavia will be directed with violence sooner than with democracy – Reuters
- International reports on Bulatovic assassination
- RS will celebrate 14 February as day of first Serb uprising
- RS presidential crisis cannot be resolved by early election because RS president must be dismissed through constitutional procedure – SDS

- ICTY arrests BiH Croat Zlatko Aleksovski again
- Testing of cadets for Banja Luka police academy finished – UN/IPTF spokesman Roberts
- All Bosniak representatives who left Srebrenica will return to work on 22 February – ONASA
- Defense Ministry in BiH Federation Government functions very well – Prce and Mahmuljin
- SFOR blocks Livno Canton Interior Ministry building, no reasons given for the move
- Zavicaj (Homeland) Coalition calls on Serb returnees in Bosansko Grahovo not to sell their privatization certificates
- OHR Mostar satisfied that conditions for establishment of HN Cantonal Privatization Agency fulfilled
- Glamoc Municipal Court founded
- Report on continuation of RS National Assembly session discussing work of RS Government
- Inspection of goods passing over Yugoslav-RS border intensified
- Both Serbs and Albanians guilty of violence in Kosovska Mitrovica – NATO
- Three assailants throw grenades at Serb bus on Lipljan-Staro Gracko route
- Kosovo Transitional Administrative Council inaugurated in Pristina
- Situation in Kosovska Mitrovica still tense – UN
- Kouchner signs regulations concerning incitement of hatred in Kosovo
- Two bombs thrown at UN building in Pristina
- Albanian terrorists destroy Serb house in Gnjilane, Kosovo
- World News
- Sports
- Weather
- Dodik participates in roundtable on RS Government program held in Serb Sarajevo

- Former tennis player Slobodan Zivojinovic denies being shot at in Belgrade
- ICTY still examining possibility of expanding indictment against Milosevic – ICTY spokesman Risley
- Albanian killed in Kosovska Vitina – KFOR
- German authorities to investigate abuse of position by German official in Kosovo
- Eurocorps HQ to start deployment in Kosovo on 13 March – unnamed NATO official
- US no longer opposes lifting of civilian air traffic sanctions on Yugoslavia