After the central celebration of RS Day, a meeting of parliamentary parties was held in Brcko, behind "closed doors". Just prior to that meeting, the President of the RS, Biljana Plavsic, and RS member in the BiH Presidency, Momcilo Krajisnik, also consulted behind "closed doors". Commenting on the "closed" meetings, Plavsic said that "...the people have been listening to us enough, the people want to see that something is being done for them..." Krajisnik predicted that there would still be differences after the meeting, but that another one might be held on Sunday evening.
