OHR SRT News Summary, 1 October 1998

Headlines

- Kosovo crisis before the UN Security Council
- The RS Government will speed up implementation of its decisions
- Inauguration of the B&H Presidency members on Oct 7 in Sarajevo

The RS Government, at its regular session, has adopted a decision to speed up implementation of its decisions made in the past. A new way of evidencing goods transport to the Federation is established. The Government has also accepted demands made from the student organisation.
0:55

The RS President, Biljana Plavsic, has said to "NIN" magazine that she was inclined to favour the forming of a national unity government and expressed her fears that that would not happen if SDS started to act in a revanchist manner. To a question whether Milorad Dodik should be PM in the new government, she said that it would be good for the RS to have a person that is accepted by the world.
0:47

Zivko Radisic refuted the slightest possibility of cooperation between the Sloga and parties from the Federation in the RS National Assembly. "As the SPRS President I can say with full responsibility that there was no pre or post election coalition with the parties from the Federation".- Radisic said.
1:30

The B&H Council of Ministers discussed the proposal of the Paris Club of Trustees on B&H debt rescheduling. Ministers have accepted text of agreement on Ploce harbour and corridor through Neum, which is to be sent to the B&H Presidency and Parliament.

1:33

Radisic said that newly elected B&H Presidency members would be inaugurated on Wednesday, October 7, at 9 a.m. in Sarajevo.
0:15

“Yesterday’s talks with the FRY President were aimed to establish stronger cooperation in this region”.- Radisic said while visiting Banja Luka medical fair.
0:13

Over 97% of expelled Serbs have said they wanted to stay in the RS. This is the result of a public poll conducted by the Association of expelled Serbs “Ostanak”. The poll comprised approximately 80,000 Serbs from Banja Luka, Prijedor, and Doboj.
0:34