RS REACTIONS ON PEACE PLAN

- Radisic: I am very satisfied with this plan although I don't know the details. It is very important for all FRY citizens to live in peace and to enable FRY to get closer to Europe. This plan means stability for all former Yugoslav countries and it will be the opportunity for UN to reconstitute its role
- Petar Djokic: This is big step forward towards peace in the entire region. Diplomacy is the only way of solving situations and crises like this one. I am sure there must have been a way to solve this crisis before.
- Poplasen: This plan means capitulation of Serbia and Yugoslavia under very humiliating conditions. Kosovo is lost. We have to ask ourselves why the Serbian people was not able to bear the pressures?
- Sarovic: In the name of humanity a humanitarian catastrophe was made. It is a matter of the survival of Serbian people. Considering that fact, Serbia needs this plan.

- Manojlo Milovanovic (RS Defence Minister): I am very suspicious of Albanian / KLA compliance to the peace plan. KLA should be disarmed
- Svetozar Mihajlovic (CoM Chair): I am commending this plan but this plan should have been signed much earlier
- G-8 meeting ended without decision being made on the commanding structure.
- American Congress commended the peace plan and assessed that Milosevic's removal from power was the only condition for permanent peace. SRNA
- Former political representative of KLA said in interview for "La Stampa" that Serbs and Albanians have to live together. Both Serbs and Albanians will be able to live in Kosovo only if they try to find a compromise.
- Sadako Ogata: It is possible for 400,000 refugees to return in Kosovo by September. Refugees from camps will be the priorities. -Figaro
- BiH Presidency Session: Pact on stability for Southeastern Europe was supported. Presidency members talked to Robert Gelbard. Richard Kauzlarich also attended the meeting. Next session will be held on 15 June when Ante Jelavic will take over the post of BiH Presidency Chairman.
