

OHR SRT News Summary, 10 May 1998

Headlines

- RS President Biljana Plavsic completed the official visit to Great Britain
- Requiems in Donja Gradina – to keep the memory
- RS NA councilors to discuss the 100 days of the Government at the session scheduled for May 12
- Expecting a new meeting Milosevic-Gelbard-Holbrooke

The future of the RS was the subject of all Biljana Plavsic's visits to Great Britain. On her way back, she stated: "I believe that this trip was a very good contribution to the RS affirmation in the world".

06:30

In Donja Gradina, the biggest place of execution of the Jasenovac concentration camp, the Serbs and the descendants of that area paid their respects to the innocent victims of the Ustasha genocide.

05:30

At the fifth session of the Government scheduled for May 12 in Banja Luka at 11:00 hrs, the councilors should pay the biggest attention to the work of the Government in the past 100 days, the work of the representatives in the BiH common institutions and the forthcoming September elections.

00:35

More than 200 Moslem refugees from Sanski Most visited today Petrovo, Kuduzovice, Jakupovice, Bastase, Varmaze, Cerice – places in the area of the Prijedor municipality in the organization of the UNHCR. The visit went by without any incidents.

00:38

The solemn inauguration of the mixed Cantonal police, which is considered illegitimate by the Moslem side, was carried out in Livno yesterday. 10 policemen of the Serb nationality, who were supposed to be brought from Banja Luka by the IPTF, were not present at the yesterday's inauguration.

00:30

The DHR Jacques Klein claims that there are 4-5,000 empty apartments in SA and that the greedy people and the economic profiteers showed in Sarajevo after the war. He also added there have been talks in SA that Serbs and Croats are not welcomed in that city.

00:26

From sanja.jelinic@ohr.int Mon May 11 08:59:34 1998 Return-Path: <sanja.jelinic@ohr.int> Delivered-To: ohr@localhost Received: (qmail 27769 invoked by uid 1003); 11 May 1998 08:59:34 -0000 Delivered-To: allied@allied.int Received: (qmail 27766 invoked from network); 11 May 1998 08:59:34 -0000 Received: from allied.int (HELO gatekeeper.allied.int) (root@192.168.30.1) by allied.int with SMTP; 11 May 1998 08:59:34 -0000 Delivered-To: vpopmail-ohr@mailbox.grmbl.com Received: from mailbox.grmbl.com by gatekeeper.allied.int (fetchmail-4.4.1 POP3) for <allied@allied.int>, (single-drop); Mon, 11 May 1998 10:59:34 CEST Received: (qmail 14230 invoked by uid 4000); 11 May 1998 09:51:39 -0000 Delivered-To: gmail-allied-ohr@allied-consultants.be Received: (qmail 14227 invoked from network); 11 May 1998 09:51:32 -0000 Received: from bruserv.ohr.int (194.105.97.10) by ns.br-net.de with SMTP; 11 May 1998 09:51:32 -0000 Received: by bruserv with Internet Mail Service (5.0.1460.8) id <KQS2Z0A2>; Mon, 11 May 1998 11:57:10 +0200 Message-ID: <5B684ABB65C2D111A1ED00600878C1F40C1584@bruserv> From: Sanja Jelinic <sanja.jelinic@ohr.int> To: 'Allied Consultants' <ohr@allied-consultants.be> Subject: SRT News, 8 april Date: Mon, 11 May 1998 11:57:08 +0200 MIME-Version: 1.0 X-Mailer:

Internet Mail Service (5.0.1460.8) Content-Type: text/plain;
charset="iso-8859-"

00:01

Status: 0

- Brussels Donors' Conference over – RS to get more than $ 400 million
- In London meeting Plavsic-Karadjordjevic
- RS Government delegation in Sipovo
- MUP informed about the names of the accused of millions worth tax evasion
- Greetings of the General Talic on the occasion of the 6th anniversary of the RS Army

Fourth donors' conference in Brussels is over. $ 1,250,000,000 was approved for the development, reconstruction and the reforms in BiH. According to the expectations of the RS delegation, more than $ 400 million should go to our Republic. Expressing the satisfaction at the outcome of the two-day international gathering, the RS Prime Minister Dodik stated for the SRT that the new RS Government was given a generous support at the meeting of the international financiers.

02:55

The RS President Biljana Plavsic talked today with His Royal Majesty Prince Aleksandar Karadjordjevic. During a several-hour talk, the prince expressed the unambiguous support to the efforts of the RS President Biljana Plavsic in fighting for the position that the RS should have in the world. He expressed the readiness to contribute himself to the efforts in order to have the IC accept the Serbs as the side that advocate the peace and the full implementation of the DA.

2:10

The RS Government delegation was in Sipovo today. They talked with the municipal officials about the reconstruction of the local management. They also discussed the problem of the Serb radio "Sipovo" that turned out to be, under strange circumstances, the local SDS station.

1:50

Minister of Interior in the RS Government Milovan Stankovic held a press conference in BL today. He spoke about the ongoing issues in this very important sector. Stankovic withdrew his resignation, submitted at the beginning of April, because he realized that the MUP basic tasks were completely fulfilled since his coming to the post of the Minister.

6:40

The representatives of the international organizations held a regular press conference in SA today. The OHR members informed, inter alia, about the work of the IMSLC in BiH. The spokesman for OHR Simon Haselock and the president of the international expert team John Watkinson announced that this Commission would be established soon on the authority of the Bonn Declaration and Dayton Agreement. The spokesman for OSCE Nicole Szulc informed the journalists about the beginning of the registration of the voters for the September elections. The voters registered in 1997 are obliged to register at the local election commissions. The spokesman for UN Alexander Ivanko announced the inauguration of the joint police in Canton 10 tomorrow at 13:00 hrs.

2:55

The International Tribunal in The Hague dropped the charges against 5 Serbs from the RS. The judge is going to decide today on dropping 9 more charges against the Serbs. According to the news agency SRNA, the reason for this is the lack of any evidence in these cases.

00:20