The President of RS, Biljana Plavsic talked today in Banja Luka with the delegation of the Institute for peace from USA and the representatives of the Committee for Foreign Affairs of the Lower House of the Canadian Parliament and the Committee for National Defense. The main topic of the today's meeting between the President Plavsic with the representatives of the Institute for peace from USA was the project on Truth and Reconciliation in BiH, which came from the provisions of the Dayton Agreement.

The final aim of this commission is the truth to be told and to find ways of the possible reconciliation and common life of all BiH citizens. "The truth is always healing, no matter what it's like", said President Plavsic.

Henriette Hamcheese has explained, on behalf of the delegation of the American Institute that the aim is to collect new suggestions and ideas in order to make a new draft of plans of proving the truth and the possible reconciliation.

"In that sense, the commission in which the representatives of all three nations would work, must be objective and dependable", said the Executive Director of the American Institute.

President Plavsic met with the delegation of the Committee for Foreign Affairs of the Lower House of the Canadian Parliament and the Committee for National Defense.

"Canada really wants to help RS", said President Plavsic, stressing her satisfaction with the first donation of medicines delivered to RS today. The president of the Committee for Foreign Affairs of the Lower House has promised that the extension of the mandate of Canadian soldiers in SFOR will soon be discussed.

The Canadian Ambassador in BiH, Serge Marso stated that the Canadian Government has shared the efforts of RS in the reform of the Serb police and donated 100,000 Canadian dollars to the Police Academy in Banja Luka. They have also announced the donation to RS and the Federation of BiH in 2 mil. Canadian dollars.

The members of the Nord-Pol brigade of SFOR have taken over the headquarters of the 5th unit of the special police of the Ministry of Interior of RS in Doboje, today morning. From the press office of the Operation group of SFOR called "EAGLE" based in Tuzla, it has been announced that the aim of the action was to confiscate weapons, official vehicles, communication equipment, files, together with the office material.

The action followed after, according to the announcement, this department has not implemented the Annex 1a of the Dayton Agreement. It is also stated that on the 8th and the 9th September, the members of the 5th unit of the police have traveled as body guards to high officials without the approval of SFOR, and participated in the confrontations in Banja Luka. Such an act was the clear violation of the instructions for the special police which are the part of the document signed by the officials of RS who are responsible for its violation. Disobeying these demands resulted in the mentioned operation, and the unit of the special police is now considered non-operational. All members of this unit are dismissed but they can write an application for joining the police forces which are being reorganized under the supervision of the international police.
