The decision to stop integral payment operations with the RS by the FRY NB Clearing House takes effect as of today.

Considering that this decision has been the subject of numerous speculations, the RS Government issued a press release: "...The RS Government has not been informed in writing about the cessation of payment operations, or about the reasons for such a move...With this measure, the RS Government does not interfere with the monetary system in FRY... The RS Government concludes that the cessation of payment operations is detrimental to the FRY and RS. Thus, it expects this important issue to be resolved soon."
