A new tax policy was one of the subjects discussed by the SNSD at a press conference held in Banja Luka today. Commenting on the statement given by Hanns Schumacher regarding the possibility of introducing sanctions against the RS for disrespecting the Banja Luka Conference on Refugee Return, Bastinac stressed that this should be done first in FBiH and Croatia, since, as he said, the Sarajevo Conference on Refugee Return was held before the Banja Luka conference. He added that sanctions would have a negative effect and would stall even more the refugee and DPs return.
