The Main Board of the SPRS was in session in Banja Luka today. It discussed Petar Djokic as the new prime minister designate, the arbitration award for the area of Brcko and dismissal of the President of the Republic Nikola Poplasen. In an interview to the Federal press, Djokic said he considered that the Coalition Sloga was entering a period when it was increasingly difficult to secure support for Prime Minister Dodik and enable him, in a constitutional way, to continue holding office.
