

OHR SRT News Summary, 15 November 1998

Headlines

- Marathon discussions on Iraq continue in the UN Security Council, with the threat of military intervention by the US
- The delegation of the RS Government completes a two-day visit to Greece
- An invitation to Kosovo Albanians for the continuation of dialogue receives no answer for now

The delegation of the RS Government completed its visit to the orthodox monastery of Hilandar in Greece.

1:00

Serbian President Milutinovic states all conditions are met for talks on the political solution for the Kosovo crisis, and invites the representatives of the Kosovo Albanians and the IC for a meeting on Wednesday, November 18 in Pristina.

1:10

The President of Montenegro Milo Djukanovic stated that the destructive and hard-line politics of Slobodan Milosevic delayed the solution for the Kosovo crisis.

0:25

other Kosovo-related news

2:30

The Deputy PM of Serbia Vojislav Seselj stated there were no legal grounds for expelling him from the RS because the DA guarantees the freedom of movement and the exchange of political ideas for everyone. He specified that he left the RS upon an agreement with the President of the RS Nikola Poplasen to avoid creating a further incident. At today's press conference in Belgrade he said the best way to unify all Serb patriotic parties was to form the Government of national unity.

0:30

The verdict on four Hague-indicted members of the Muslim army to be read tomorrow.

0:25