The RS Ministry of Defence issued a press release denying the statement of Aleksa Buha, President of the SDS, that the new RS Government accepts the establishment of a single BiH Army. The Ministry denied any participation in negotiations, and stated that the confusion was caused by a letter from the Hague Tribunal Deputy Prosecutor addressed to the Minister of Judiciary, Goran Neskovic. The letter asked for copies of RS commanding and headquarters manuals, allegedly delivered at one of the previous meetings between representatives of the RS Army, HVO and BiH Army. The aforementioned meeting was held prior to the establishment of the new RS Government.
