The regular press conference of the international organizations was held in Banja Luka today. The IC is still concerned regarding the problem of election of the new Government and the stalemate position in the RS NA, the spokesperson for OHR Christian Palmer stated at today's press conference. Palmer stressed that the RS President is responsible for this situation since he did not propose the prime minister designate who would have the assembly majority. Palmer reiterated the position that the RS is experiencing the presidential and not the constitutional crisis and that there is no reason for dissolving of the NA. Speaking on Srebrenica, the spokesperson for OHR said that the Steering Board is intensively working on forming of the municipal assembly, expressing hope that the assembly would be formed in accordance with the election results by the end of the month.
