OHR SRT News Summary, 20 September 1998

Headlines

- The announced resolution on Kosovo, a last warning to both sides to resolve the crisis as soon as possible
- A spiritual commemoration on the occasion of the 800th anniversary of the Hilandar monastery in Ribnik
- 7th anniversary of the 16th Krajina brigade commemorated
- Third International Book Fair Banja Luka 98 closed

Official information on the results of general election in BiH is expected on September 23, as announced by OSCE.
0:05

The special American envoy for the Balkans, Robert Gelbard, arrived again in Sarajevo today, where he will meet with the Sarajevo authorities. The purpose of Gelbard's visit to Sarajevo, as reported by Beta, was not announced, except that the topics to be discussed would be the implementation of the election results and the DA after the elections.
0:25

Kosovo-related news
2:35

The Association of combats "Beli Vukovi" (White Wolves) from Pale today sent an open letter to the RS President and Prime Minister, the Minister of Interior, representatives of the IPTF and the media on the occasion of 40 days that have passed since the death of the Deputy Head of the Public Security Centre of Sarajevo, Srdjan Knezevic, asking for the killer of their legendary commander to be publicly revealed.
0:41

A group of 25 Serbs, who have spent the last 6 years in the

RS, returned to the south-Mostar settlement of Zitomislic yesterday, media from Mostar report today. The Serbs arrived in Zitomislic with UNHCR buses, and their return was secured by SFOR and IPTF members. The coordinator for return of Serbs to Mostar, Vujadin Perovic, stated that he expected help from the IC in reconstruction of destroyed houses in order to have returnees move in before the winter. The group of Serb returnees was visited by the mayor of Mostar, Safet Orucevic.
0:40