President Plavsic today received in Banski dvor the American Ambassador in BiH, Richard Kauslarich. After the meeting, Kauslarich told journalists that the dominant subject was the forthcoming parliamentary elections. He added that the USA will give full support to the OSCE in Europe in terms of organising the elections.

President Plavsic talked in BL with Mathew Daily, Deputy Special Envoy of President Clinton for the Balkans, today. After the meeting the American diplomat informed journalists that the main subject was the forthcoming parliamentary elections in the RS.

Kauslarich stated that he had presented to President Plavsic the support which would be given by USA to democratic and free elections for the National Assembly of the RS. "The media will have a very important role regarding this matter" said Kauslarich. "We will do everything in order to provide non-party and above all independent elections" he added. Also, they discussed the return of refugees. Kauslarich recently discussed this issue with the representatives of the Federation.

Dragoljub Mirjanic stated today that the final decision on the status of the Brcko area will be made on March 15th 1998 in Vienna. "The main subject of this conference is determination of the time frame for the future course of the arbitrage process. We agreed that FBiH should submit a documented appeal concerning the implementation of the decision on the status of Brcko area by December 1st 1997, and the RS should reply to this appeal by December 31st." said Mirjanic. Regarding the statement made by the president of the SDS, Aleksa Buha, who claimed Mirjanic was still a SDS member, Mirjanic said at today's press conference: "Buha said I was still a member of the Main Board of SDS, but I claim not to be for over three months now. I do not attend meetings of the Main Board anymore, I don't have any contact with them. You also know that I sent that letter of support to Mrs. President two months ago. So, according to that... no, his statement is not true."

President of SPRS, Zivko Radisic, denied the statement made by Milan Ninkovic, Minister of Defence in the RS Government and president of the municipal board of SDS in Doboje, who said yesterday that SDS, radicals and socialist, will join the coalition and take part in the elections together. "We never discussed any coalition whatsoever with SDS. We are taking part in the elections independently. They (SDS) are defeated now and are trying to save themselves with these kinds of statements", said Radisic.

Following the past elections, passions in Doboje are still not cooling down. The current situation shows that this town really needs democratisation of the political sphere. 27 members of SDS left the party voluntarily, but the SDS municipal board stated that they were excluded from the party due to their disrespect for party discipline.

SDS municipal board did not want to give their names, but we all know that those are the people who raised their voice against crime, profit, indecent actions and anarchy.
