President of the SNSD, Milorad Dodik stated at today's press conference of his party, that the meeting of the SNSD Main Board was productive and assessed that members responded adequately to the so-called "Congress of the SNSD" held by the former PM nominee, Brane Miljus. Dodik said that the Board considers that the RS President should give the PM mandate to the "Sloga" Coalition, keeping in mind that the previous two candidates were not from this coalition. Secretary of the SNSD, Nenad Bastinac assessed that the RS crisis can be solved if President Poplasen appoints PM Dodik for the new PM nominee or if he dissolves the NA, but the last solution could jeopardise the RS.

Vice President of the SRS, Pantelija Damjanovic stated today at a press conference that the SRS hopes that the standpoints of the two blocks of Serb parties in the RS NA, on appointment of a new PM nominee, will become closer within the next couple of days. Damjanovic said that the Coalition of the SDS and the SRS left it to the "Sloga" Coalition to decide on appointment of the new PM nominee, on condition that they do not appoint the current PM Dodik. The SRS arguments for such a condition were that the current Government has only been giving false promises to the people and its work was not satisfactory. Damjanovic concluded that the SRS wants to have a Government in which the electoral results will be respected and which will have the majority support in the RS NA.
