OHR SRT News Summary, 4 May 1998

Headlines

- RS President Biljana Plavsic sends a letter to James Pardew
- Government suggests price reduction for electricity
- Conflicts in Kosovo today
- Discussions in London on resolving the Middle East crisis

RS President Biljana Plavsic sent a letter to the special U.S. envoy for military affairs in the Balkans, James Pardew, asking him to explain the statement given to Reuters news agency where he claimed, inter alia, that the RS Army was still a threat to the peace process.
01:29

RS President Biljana Plavsic in BL today received the President of the International Committee of the Red Cross and the Red Crescent Society. They talked about the activities of this international organisation in the RS.
01:57

Regarding the decision of the public enterprise "Elektroprivreda" in the RS to raise the price of electricity, the RS Government issued an announcement suggesting that the Steering Board of Elektroprivreda reduce the price.
01:14

In an interview given to the daily magazine Srpsko Oslobodjenje, Momcilo Krajisnik said that the RS Government had no right to ask him for any kind of personal responsibility or information, announcing that he would in any case submit a report on his work for the next session.
00:35

The conflicts in Kosovo between police and armed Albanian groups continue today.

04:05

An expert team from the RS Commission for the exchange of war prisoners and missing persons, led by Dr. Zeljko Karan, have identified the bodies of 35 Serb civilians and soldiers exhumed from mass and individual graves on the territory of the Konjic municipality .
01:13

A spokesman for the International Tribunal for War Crimes in The Hague told the Beta agency today that the Secretariat of the Tribunal had received a letter from the Serbs accused of war crimes who are in custody in The Hague. 10 Serbs accused of war crimes in BiH and Croatia asked the RS authorities for help in resolving the problems they are having in detention.
00:45