

OHR SRT News Summary, 7 June 1998

Headlines

- President of the RS, Biljana Plavsic Spoke in Stuttgart With Serb Businessmen and Representatives of Serb Associations in Germany
- Heads of Diplomacy of European Union Will Be Considering BiH Situation in Luxembourg Tomorrow
- Foreign Diplomats in Kosmet Today
- South East Europe Ministers' Conference

During her visit to Germany, President Plavsic met with representatives of Serb associations in Germany and Serb businessmen and discussed possibilities of their investments in the RS economy.

0:45

Heads of European Union diplomacy will meet in Luxembourg tomorrow to discuss a Declaration on Establishing of Special Relations with BiH. The RS Member of the BiH Presidency, Momcilo Krajisnik confirmed that he will travel to Luxembourg on Tuesday in order to attend the meeting of the Peace Implementation Council for Bosnia.

0:40

The HR, Carlos Westendorp requested a special status of BiH to be introduced. This document will define the BiH as an important area of interest. The plan provides establishing of a 12 experts' Commission from the joint institutions of BiH. The Commission should encourage integration of BiH into the European Union. The BiH should get the special status in the European Union after the September elections.

0:49

The first flight from the Montenegro Airlines to Banja Luka is scheduled for tomorrow. The flight was previously scheduled for May 25th, but was canceled due to weather conditions.

0:10

During his visit to Teslic, PM Dodik announced construction of an asphalt road between Teslic and Doboj, and he promised that the Government will finance the entire project.

0:50