

OHR SRT News Summary, 9 June 1998

Headlines

- Luxembourg – Analysis of the achieved results and further steps in the DA implementation
- After her return from Germany, the RS President, Biljana Plavsic, pointed out the importance of maintaining a firm link between Diaspora and Homeland
- Vienna – Banja Luka airline – of great significance for the revitalization of the RS economy
- The Supreme Council of Defense held its session in Belgrade

The one-day ministerial meeting of the Peace Implementation Council Steering Board is in progress in Luxembourg. The rČsumČ of previous activities regarding the implementation of the DPA is being done at the meeting which was opened by the High Representative in BiH, Carlos Westendorp. The goal of the meeting is to review the situation in BiH, the progress which has been made since the Ministerial Conference on BiH held in Bonn in December last year, as well as the tasks which are to be realized in the implementation of the Dayton-Paris Peace Agreement.

3:20

The RS President Biljana Plavsic returned today from Germany where she was a honorary guest at the fifth all-Serbs session held in Stuttgart the day before yesterday. On that occasion Serbs from Diaspora expressed their wish to be firmly connected to their homeland. This meeting was the third meeting of the RS President with Serbs from Diaspora in the last month.

2:00

A regular air traffic between the RS and Austria was established today by a promotive flight Vienna-Banja Luka. This promotive flight of the Austrian company Tyrolean Airline marked the establishment of the first international line between the RS and the Western Europe. The RS Prime Minister, Milorad Dodik, RS Minister of Traffic and Communications, Marko Pavic, and Banja Luka Mayor, Djordje Umicevic, met a high Austrian economic delegation that arrived by this plane at Banja Luka Airport. The Deputy High Representative, Jacques Klein and Austrian Ambassador to BiH were present at the airport on this occasion, as well. After the meeting at the Airport, RS government representatives and directors of some Banja Luka companies talked with the members of the Austrian delegation about the possibilities of cooperation since, by opening this airline, the conditions for a better communication i.e. economic cooperation of a higher quality between the RS and Austria are fulfilled.

2:10

The Supreme Council of Defense held its session, chaired by the FRY President Slobodan Milosevic, in Belgrade today. The current military-political situation in the region was discussed as well as the situation at the border between the FRY and the Republic of Albania.

0:35

The situation in Kosovo and numerous reactions from the world to the plans of the IC to carry out a possible military intervention in Kosovo.

4:15

The reports from the regular press conferences of the international organizations held in Sarajevo and Banja Luka.

3:15

Activities of the SDS and SNS concerning the pre-election campaign.

3:10