arrest of war
criminals

BHTV 1 Fri by Sanita Lisica – Commenting on the actions to arrest the war crime suspect Radovan Karadzic, carried out in the last several years, reports says that the main question is whether they were “for real or only a charade?” She further remarks that the last actions of SFOR in Pale were unsuccessful, as many to date, in spite of the SFOR claims that were getting closer. “SFOR conducts operations 24 hours a day. The information we gathered in Bijeljina, during the last action, are being analysed and I can say that the circles around the persons charged for war crimes, are closing down”- said Dave Sullivan, SFOR Spokesperson. “I don’t think they realise that there is a leak of information within SFOR, because I can’t imagine that every failed action because of something else than that someone in SFOR gives announcements to those people in advance”, comments Seada Palavric, SDA Vice President. “The most tragic fact is that those people who are making promises would like for Karadzic and [Ratko] Mladic to be taken away, but they would like someone else to do it so they wouldn’t have to. Maybe the destiny of Zoran Djindjic scared many of them”, said Zlatko Lagumdzija SDP President. Citizens in Sarajevo and Banja Luka mainly believe that all of this is a charade and that if SFOR wanted to capture top war crimes suspects they would a long time ago.

SDA will seek constitutional refutation of decision to abolish municipalities in Mostar

Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Constitutional refutation of the decision will be required' – SDA President Sulejman Tihic stated for Oslobodjenje following the session of the SDA Presidency on Friday that his party was not entirely satisfied with the Mostar decisions: "We express our satisfaction over the establishment of the single and unified Mostar has been established, as well as over abolishment of parallelisms in City Administration... However, we do not agree with the abolishment of municipalities as the units of local self rule, way of election of the city mayor and a number of counsellors in city council." Stressing that SDA was supporting the work of the Mostar Commission, Tihic however said that SDA did not support the selection of the mayor, claiming that as of now every leading person in Mostar would be a Croat. He also added that Croats will be dominant in City council. "We will try to change given solutions through parliamentary procedure. We will also ask refutation of the constitutionality of the High Rep decision regarding the abolishment of city municipalities", said Tihic adding that Croats also announced the same initiative. Nevertheless, SDA Presidency concluded that its officials will participate in the implementation of the High Rep Mostar decision until the final solution to the issue.

Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'SDA not entirely satisfied with solution for Mostar', Nezavisne novine pg 5 'SDA is not satisfied with abolishing of Mostar's municipalities' – carry press statement following the SDA Presidency session.

Dnevni List Sun pg 3 'Yes to Ashdown's decision, but not at all costs' – According to Zijad Hadziomerovic, member of the SDA Presidency and Head of Mostar's Municipality Old Town, a dialogue about imperfections of the decision should be established during the process of implementation of the HR's decision.

SNSD supports Ashdown's decision on Mostar	RH B Fri, Vecernji List Sat pg 4 'SNSD for implementation of decision', FENA – SNSD President Milorad Dodik said today that SNSD representatives will take part in the implementation of the decision on the new Statute of Mostar City imposed by High Representative Paddy Ashdown even though he does not support imposed solutions in principle. He told a press conference in Banja Luka that SNSD would participate in the implementation of the decision and creation of preconditions for changing it through legal and democratic procedure in order to ensure the establishment of a single administration in Mostar based on rule of law and equal representation of all constitutive peoples and citizens.
SBiH supports Ashdown's decision on Mostar	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Decision in interests of all citizens' – Vice President of Party for BiH Sahbaz Dzihanovic stated at the press conference on Friday that his party supported the decision of the High Representative regarding Mostar, despite some discrepancies. He stressed that the decision stopped agony and apartheid that took place in the city for more than 10 years: "This decision finally abolished the division on ethnic base. It is encouraging that the new structure of administering Mostar will be established, and that it would be ensured that all vital functions will be in the city jurisdiction."

Orucevic on
decision

NTV Hayat Sat – In an interview to NTV Hayat's Central News, former Mostar mayor Safet Orucevic was asked to comment the new Mostar Statute as imposed by the High Representative: "I think this statute is good enough, and it confirms an idea of united city. I personally support this decision of the High Representative. Of course, the Statute has its poor aspects, but with a bit of good will and well-intended politicians, I think the time has come for this city to become organized in the way its citizens want it. Let me emphasize some important aspects: all the main services will be preserved in 6 city areas, and they will function the same way the municipalities have been functioning. Secondly, in the City Council no one can be outvoted, which prevents any kind of ethnic majority. It also excludes any kind of parallelism." Commenting SDA objections to Mostar decision, Orucevic strongly opposed it adding that his former party has completely changed its policy towards Mostar protecting Bosniak national interests: "But if we had gained our national interests in eastern Mostar, many Bosniacks from other municipalities would be left aside. This would open the Pandora's box in the entire BiH, as well as the possibility for other peoples to demand an establishment of ethnically oriented municipalities... I certainly hope that the IC will remove all those politicians who are prepared to obstruct the idea of united Mostar." Former Mostar mayor also said that there was a chance to prevent HR from imposing the decision, however stressed that all previous initiatives were "ruined" by radicals.

Reps of returnees associations on Mostar decision	Dnevni List Sun pg 13 'Ivanisevic: Serbs finally become equal' – The leader of Association of Serb returnees to Mostar, Mirko Ivanisevic, says “the Serbs have, owing to the decision of the OHR on restructuring of Mostar, become an equal people with a guaranteed minimum quota of councilors, which is not the case anywhere else in the FBiH”. Saying that the Association supports the High Representative’s decision, Ivanisevic notes that the Serbs, Bosniaks and Croats in other local communities should get the same rights the Serbs in Mostar got. DL also carries the President of Association of Bosniak returnees to Mostar, Ibrahim Rahimic, who says: “There are no more minority peoples in Mostar, there are no political terms such as east and west Mostar. All Mostarians can now say it is their city as a whole”.
UHSP: Mostar Statute unacceptable	Vecernji List Sat pg 2 'UHSP: Statute for Mostar is unacceptable and detrimental' – The United Croat Party of Rights (UHSP) assesses the Statute for Mostar “unacceptable and detrimental to Croats”. UHSP wonders “what sort of democracy are we talking about, what is the system in which the will of people is not observed, and in which suggestions of political parties and its leaders and suggestions of religious leaders are not taken into consideration”.
HDU unhappy with Ashdown’s decision	Slobodna Dalmacija Sun pg 11 'HDU: Politicians let people down' – The Croat Democratic Union (HDU), led by Miro Grabovac Titan, is reportedly unhappy with the HR’s decision. “By enacting the decision on organization of Mostar, the High Representative used his powers in order to strengthen his position of many representatives of IC in BiH. On the other hand, domestic political representatives elected by the people dodge every responsibility, and instead of fighting for position of their people, they let the others do it, in the same time declaring themselves as victims”.

NN on Mostar decision	Nezavisne novine pg 3 of supplement 'Party for BiH turn the scale in decision' –NN claims that they found out unofficially that High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, allegedly has promised to HDZ that there will be 35 seats in the City Council but with no national quota, claiming this took place a day before the decision. However, a maximum quota is result of Ashdown's meeting with leaders of Party for BiH in Mostar. NN claims that this concept of Statute of Mostar is result of Ashdown's friendship with Haris Silajdzic.
Survey shows Mostar citizens in favour of unified city	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Citizens of North are for unified Mostar' – Daily carries that the results of survey conducted in the Mostar by Partner agency showed that 72% of its citizens were in favour of the unified city. In addition, 91% of Mostar North Municipality supported this, denying the statement by its Head Salem Bubalo who previously claimed that "there was no mood for single Mostar in this municipality."
Oslobodjenje editorial on Mostar decision	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Ashdown's key decision' op-ed by Mirko Sagolj – Remarking that SDA and HDZ have been fighting over the Mostar issue for years waiting each to ensure domination of its people over the city, author says that the Mostar decision was the key one made by the High Representative Paddy Ashdown during his mandate. He also claims that while HDZ was trying to preserve Croat domination, SDA – as the party of less numbered Bosniaks – was working towards keeping the absolute power in three Bosniak municipalities, while both policies meant the division of Mostar. "Ashdown himself said that the talks and negotiations on Mostar lasted for about 800 hours. Realizing, probably, that Mostar was a key issue for entire BiH, Ashdown dedicated to it a lot of time and attention", reads editorial also praising multiethnic parties – SDP, SDU and Party for BiH and Safet Orucevic – for supporting the decision.

FBiH Govt reshuffle

Dzihanovic on SDA initiative to dismiss FBiH Govt

Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4&5 'SDA plan to dismiss the Government fails?' – FBiH vice president Sahbaz Dzihanovic stated for Oslobodjenje that it would be contra-productive to replace the FBiH Government and the FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic. He added that it would be necessary to estimate potential consequences of such plan, especially having in mind that in 2004 Federation Government has to speed up the reforms in the field of state security, intelligence, army, energy, education, and the system of pensions and protection for veterans population. Therefore, the Vice President wonders whether it would be possible to establish the new, quality, government able to complete all these obligations, also announcing that the decision on respond to the SDA initiative will be agreed on Tuesday together with Federation Vice President Desnica Radivojevic and President Niko Lozancic. Oslobodjenje concludes that the FBiH government reshuffle plans will probably not be carried out following consensus of the FBiH leadership. In that case, the SDA will have to pass the initiative to the FBiH Parliament.

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Decision on Federation Government dismissal next week' – Avaz claims that according to Sahbaz Dzihanovic the decision on the SDA initiative to dismiss FBiH Government will be brought on Friday.

SDA expects Hadzipasic to resign	Oslobodjenje pg 5 'What SDA objects to the Government' – The letter SDA President Sulejman Tihic sent to Federation leadership reads that the new government would be significantly changed from the current one. He also listed 13 reasons for the Government dismissal. Oslobodjenje pg 8 'If Hadzipasic doesn't resign' – SDA Presidency on Friday did not discuss the request for the dismissal of FBiH Government that party President Sulejman Tihic sent to Federation leadership. "We expect Prime Minister Hadzipasic to resign in order to solve the current situation. If that doesn't happen and if it is not possible to find joint solution between leaders of FBiH, SDA will commence with the initiative before the FBiH House of Representatives", claims Oslobodjenje to be conclusion by the SDA Presidency.

'Tihic will not make me
to resign'

Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Tihic will not make me to resign', Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'I shall not resign' – FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic stated for daily that he did not intent to file resignation despite the fact that the SDA President Sulejman Tihic publicly asked him to do so. Admitting that the government was not able to fulfil promises given during the elections, Hadzipasic stressed that this was the case due to the parties' interference:

"This looks like trading and personal ambitions. Somebody doesn't like my behaviour style and the way of communication." SDA, says Hadzipasic, has not enough arguments to dismiss him: "It is impossible to lead the battle and to win at all fronts. We had to face with the garbage that was compiling for eight years. You don't expects us to clean that for eleven months?!" FBiH Prime Minister blamed ruling political parties for a number of problems, such as Aluminij, FBiH Army and solution to the status of veterans. He refused to comment the speculation that he has a support within OHR. Dnevni List Sat front, pg 3 'OHR does not have to protect me in my party and my state' – In addition to Hadzipasic's comment, DL also carries a comment by the Republika Srpska PM, Dragan Mikerevic, who says the events surrounding the FBiH Government will affect the work of the RS Government. "I have an excellent co-operation with Hadzipasic. In case of crisis within the governments, there would be a halt in the reforms and that would influence the work of our government. We would lose the necessary momentum. I think it will not come to that and that the sense would triumph over emotions", says PM Mikerevic.

Other political issues

Parties invited to sign 'Statement on Political Will' against abolishment of entities	RHB Fri, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Invitation to all political parties to declare themselves against abolishment of entities', Nezavisne novine pg 4 'SNSD, DNS and SPRS with Statement against abolishing of RS' – The leaders of political parties that signed 'Chapter for Future' – SNSD, SPRS [RS Socialist Party] sand DNS [Democratic Peoples Union] – stated in Banja Luka that they would not accept the changes to the constitutional structure of BiH which would lead towards the abolishment of entities. The statement rejects a possibility of carrying out the activities related to change of BiH Constitution which would lead towards abolishment of the entities. President of SNSD, Milorad Dodik, stated at the press conference that if other political parties in BiH don't accept their initiative, their next move will be to suggest the idea of "building BiH as asymmetric community, in which RS as entity would not present a disturbance." RTRS Sat – Marko Pavic, DNS President, stressed that the statement on political will is a product of an initiative to stop with speculations on changes to Constitutional and Dayton's structure of BiH and RS. Petar Djokic, SPRS President, stated that RS as entity would not cause any damages to functioning of BiH.

Ashdown dissatisfied with slowing down reforms process	BHTV 1 Sat, RTRS Sat – In an interview to Jutarnje Novine, the High Representative Paddy Ashdown stated that he was not satisfied with the cease of the reforms implementation at the beginning of this year. BHTV 1 feature on implementation of 16 EC posed conditions	BHTV 1 Fri by Mirela Cosic – In addition to the appointment of BiH Minister of Defence, BiH has a long way towards the EU. In order to fulfil the sixteen conditions laid down in the Feasibility Study by the end of June, BiH Parliament would have to pass new 44 Laws. However, according to the plan of BiH Council of Ministers, which is supposed to lead BiH to signing an Agreement on Stabilisation and Accession, In addition to the political will, large amounts of money are required. Chairman of CoM Adnan Terzic, doesn't see this as an obstacle towards the fulfilment of the plan, as by signing the Agreement, the investment funds ranging from 2 millions to a billion KM would become accessible to BiH. The budget of BiH has not yet been passed, the main reason being that the amount of means to be transferred to BiH institutions from the entities has still not been defined. In fact, FBiH still hasn't passed its budget; the delegates have only adopted the draft and according to FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic that should take place at the next session of FBiH Parliament. RS Government will not present a treat to fulfilment of sixteen priorities, according to RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic, but there are different attitudes on the laws which have to be passed, such as the Law on Intelligence Agency. Plan of the Council of Ministers regarding 16 conditions has been divided into five sections.

If we want a single economic space, the only way for that is to have municipalities, based on their own interests, work together." PDHR Hays also stressed the importance of the direct election of the majors, which will be implemented in RS as of this year, "which increases participation of the citizens and parties in political processes which become more transparent."

BiH Defence Minister issue

Sarovic proposes a merge of two ministries or abolishment of one to ease appointment of BH Defence Minister	BHTV 1 Fri – The final deadline for reaching an agreement on appointment of the first BiH Minister of Defence is 15th February. After the first negotiations in Lukavica, leaders of BiH Parties have maintained their positions each claiming that the duty should be performed by their candidate. Leaders from RS, according to SDS Vice President Mirko Sarovic, have offered two solutions to the situation. First one is for Defence Minister and his Deputies to rotate every year. The second solution envisages abolishment of one Ministry, or a merge of the Ministry for Refugees and Displaced persons with the Civil Affairs Ministry, which would bring a number of Ministers to nine making equal number of posts held by each ethnicity. “If we would have eight Ministries, which means that one would have to be abolished or merged with the other, plus the Chairman, it wouldn’t be so important who would get this position, because it would be divided by three”- said Sarovic. “When it comes to this second suggestion, about the rationalization of the Ministries in order to fulfil the Constitutional principle, the principle of the nationality representations, we are certainly open for negotiations. And I think – if that or some other suggestion will solve this issue – we are ready for a compromise.”- said Barisa Colak HDZ President. SDA and HDZ are unanimous that the first suggestion is against the law on Council of Ministers, stressing that second one was also unacceptable. According to the information from the Cabinet of BH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic, SDA would accept that Minister of Defence is a representative of ‘others’. Parties’ leaders won’t speak about the nominations and individuals for this job, but it is certain that new Minister will be a civilian, who is out of military service for at least three years and at the end his nomination will have to be accepted by OHR.

Ivanic on BH Defence Minister position	RTRS Sat – Mladen Ivanic, BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs, stated that the international community has no influence over the selection of a Ministry of Defence, but that it requested for this appointment to take place as soon as possible. Ivanic was asked whether the Minister would be a Serb: "It is very hard to answer that question. Of course, majority of political parties from RS would like to see Serb selected. However, that is a subject to harmonisation of parties who are a majority. SDS, SDA and HDZ will select future BiH Minister of Defence."
Becirbasic on BH Defence Minister	Dnevni List Sun pg 7 'Becirbasic: We do not have information about agreement' – The Secretary General of the Standing Committee for Military Matters (SCMM), Enes Becirbasic, told Fena that the "appointment of BiH Defence Minister and two of his/hers deputies should have been completed by end January and confirmed in the Parliament by mid February, but unfortunately, we still do not have information that the competent institutions have agreed upon the appointment".
