

OHR's Statement at the International Agencies' Joint Press Conference in Banja Luka

High Representative-EU Special Representative to Speak at Berlin Conference On BiH

The High Representative and EU Special Representative will be in Berlin tomorrow to speak at a conference entitled "Quo vadis Bosnia and Herzegovina?" organised by the German 'Southeast Europe Association'.

The conference will be attended by scholars, politicians, businesspeople and representatives of the media. The association plays an important role in German external cultural politics, building bridges between Germany and the countries of South Eastern Europe in the fields of science, politics and culture.

The High Representative will outline the political situation in BiH following the October general election, progress in key areas of reform, the transition of the OHR into the Office of the EU Special Representative and the growing influence of the EU in BiH.

We will have details of the HR-EUSR's addresss available for you tomorrow.
