

PDHR and Brcko Supervisor Roderick Moore Visits Mostar

During his first official visit to Mostar, Principal Deputy High Representative and Brcko Supervisor Roderick Moore met separately today with Mayor Ljubo Beslic and Mostar City Council President Murat Coric.

Ambassador Moore expressed his readiness for constructive cooperation with Mostar officials in order to advance the interests of the city's inhabitants.

"We want to see Mostar develop and make real progress," Ambassador Moore said. "Citizens deserve swift and efficient government formation, and the new administration must waste no time in addressing citizens' actual needs. Only with this objective and with dialogue and compromise can Mostar move forward."
