

PDHR Meets with Nasa Stranka

Principal Deputy High Representative, Raffi Gregorian, met today with The President of Nasa stranka, Bojan Bajic and member of the Executive Board, Dennis Gratz.

During the meeting they discussed the current political and economic situation in the country and steps needed to reform the political system to make politicians more accountable to and more effective in representing the interests of, the voters.

Mr Bajic and Mr Graz also briefed the Principal Deputy High Representative about the plans of Nasa Stranka in the forthcoming period, and plans for the 2010 general elections.

Raffi Gregorian congratulated President Bajic for the party's performance in the municipal elections, especially taking into account that the party was founded only months before the elections.
