

Property Legislation Implementation Secretary – Return and Reconstruction Task Force Department

PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF POSITION

The PLIP Cell is the inter-agency body consisting of the agencies most closely engaged in Property Legislation Implementation (PLIP, the OHR, UNHCR, OSCE, CRPC, and UNMIBH). The PLIP Cell, in turn, coordinates and liaises with the country-wide network of 'Focal Points' – the property officers of the PLIP organisations – ensuring a harmonious approach to PLIP issues, and a unified policy on the same. It similarly liaises with the relevant national institutions, governmental and non-governmental, at State, Entity, Cantonal and Municipal levels, to promote and facilitate property legislation implementation, enabling greater engagement, ownership and unity of approach among these bodies. The PLIP Secretary will work under the direct supervision of the PLIP Co-ordinator.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Preparing and determining agenda items for PLIP Cell meetings, in coordination with PLIP Cell members and RRTF PLIP
- Preparing detailed minutes of PLIP Cell meetings and distributing to PLIP Cell members and RRTF PLIP
- Liaising as appropriate with RRTF and HR/RoL regional staff

- Undertaking specific projects as directed by PLIP coordinator including:
- Drafting procedures related to the PLIP Cell work with Housing Offices
- Compiling information related to alleged abuses of the Property Law
- Systematizing the linkages between the eligibility criteria for alternative accommodation and information on income levels, land plot beneficiaries, etc.
- Drafting correspondence
- Collecting information from RRTF and PLIP Focal Points
- Oversight of PLIP Statistics Group
- Assisting with implementation of OHR policy on staff housing
